

Family Art Trail

There are lots of portraits in the Cromwell Museum! Follow this trail to meet the people in them, and discover some secrets.

1. Can you find the BIGGEST portrait we have on display?

- Who is in this portrait?
- Why do you think he's wearing such fancy shoes and padded trousers?
- What clothes would you wear if someone was making a painting of you?

2. Can you find the smallest portrait we have on display? Hint: it's in a piece of jewellery!

This portrait of Oliver Cromwell is on a pendant, and is surrounded by rubies. It belonged to his wife, Elizabeth.

- Can you find the portrait of Elizabeth in which she's wearing a pendant that looks like this one?
- Why do you think she would wear a picture of her husband?

3. Can you find a painting with a battle in it?

- Take a close look at the people shown. What do you think they are feeling in this painting?
- What kinds of sounds would you hear if you were there?

4. Can you find a painting of London? Hint: you can find it behind a man riding a horse.

This painting shows London about 10 years before the Great Fire in 1666.

- How does London look different today?
- Do you recognise any buildings in the painting?

5. Can you find a portrait of someone related to Oliver Cromwell?

- Who are they? Ask an adult to help you find out.
- What do you think they are feeling or thinking in this portrait?
